Well, this is our first newsletter for 2015 I want to thank all our members for giving me the opportunity to serve as your Commander for 2014. We had a great year and I know it will carry on in 2015 with Commander Romano. What will make it great is new ideas and destinations. We are more than just raft-offs. The Sea Ray tour is an example of a volunteer taking the lead for this great activity. We need more like that to keep us interested and entertained. The St. Pats lunch, boat blessing, Watts Bar trip, Circle raft-off, and Past Commanders Hot Dog and Corn roast are some of our great regular activities. We need more volunteers to step forward with other ideas. Think about it at some point to contribute time and or ideas to keep TCC a great club. We'll see you on the deck.

Past Commander,
Kenn Genge

OVERHEARD AT THE DOCKS

Ahoy Skipper! Aye Matey, how you be this fine day in 2015? Just great and floating along, and you sir? Well last year was a pretty good year, although a few of our shipmates hit a few big wakes, but they overcame them. And ...our "ROCK" committee of two were overjoyed. They had no names to put on the "Rock". So..... see you round the bend

You "all"

TCC January Event - The Museum of East Tennessee
601 S. Gay St. 865-215-8824 easttnhistory.org

Thursday, January 22nd

History speaks through the Museum of East Tennessee History's permanent and changing exhibits! At the heart of the museum is the award-winning signature exhibit, Voices of the Land: The People of East Tennessee, a moving, artifact-rich journey through more than 300 years of life in East Tennessee. Popular, too, is the East Tennessee Streetscape, a true step back in time, wherein visitors can peruse the Corner Drug Store or climb aboard Island Home-bound Streetcar No. 416. Several times a year, changing exhibits installed in the Rogers-Claussen Feature Gallery highlight special stories from East Tennessee's past.

Made in Tennessee - Manufacturing Milestones

Car Pool Meet: Poplar Springs Ramp, Depart promptly at 9 am
