Past Commander Corner

I became a boater over 40 years ago for a few simple reasons. It was great family fun; it was a challenge to learn how to do it right and the people that were boaters were friendly, fun, and always willing to help. How can you get better than that? We loved the water and boating as a family. We made great friends over the years and when you had problems with the boat, there was always someone who wanted to help get you going again, which leads to my main point - always be willing to help or volunteer to lead an event, have some adventure, more fun and meet more great boating friends. That is what makes a fantastic boating group or club; someone always ready to lead, help, offer new ideas, and volunteer. You will not find a friendlier group of people than boaters - it is a social fun loving helpful culture that non-boaters will never understand. So jump in there and help TCC become a great active adventure loving group of friendly people - volunteer to lead an event, raft-off, or become a leader with this "funnest" group of people on the lake.

Stu McFadden, Past Commander

REMEMBER: THE YACHT CLUB WILL RESERVE SEATS FOR TCC MEMBERS AFTER THE MEETING. THEY WOULD APPRECIATE A CALL FOR RESERVATIONS.

COME ONE, COME ALL! BE THERE OR BE SQUARE!

PIGEON FORGE ADVENTURE AT THE MARGARITAVILLE HOTEL

with optional evening excursion to HATFIELD and MCCOY'S DINNER SHOW (5:00 PM)

MARCH 2-3, 2017

A variety of room types available, starting at $139. All rooms have a fireplace and private balcony.

Hatfield and McCoy's Dinner Show is $40 per person if we have at least 20 in our group. This includes all-you-can-eat dinner and non-alcoholic beverages. Alcoholic beverages are available at additional cost.

The Pigeon Forge trolley costs 50 cents and is available to transport from the hotel to the dinner show venue for those who prefer not driving their cars.

BE READY TO SIGN UP AT THE JANUARY AND FEBRUARY CRUISERS MEETINGS!

BRING YOUR CHECK BOOK!

Those not attending the Hatfield and McCoy's dinner show may enjoy the many other attractions available at The Margaritaville Hotel venue.

MAKE YOUR PLANS NOW TO BE PART OF THE FUN!
